

Please note that the menus below are available for pre-booked groups. Your group should select ONE MENU ONLY from the list and indicate the number of people who will require the meal. We cannot accept orders for less than 15 meals. Please let us have your choices at least 14 days before the visit. We will always endeavour to make adjustments to your needs in the week prior to your arrival, but reserve the right to make a charge for any meals cancelled during this period. We can usually accommodate special catering needs. For groups not wishing to pre-book, the tea room serves light refreshments on standard open days, with meals being made to order (subject to availability).
